Health Benefits

Please be advised that on December 17, 2012, the Common Council amended Section 50-3 (b) of the Living Wage Ordinance relating to employee health benefits. The rates indicated in this section refer to those effective April 1, 2012 through March 31, 2013 and are subject to annual adjustment as written in Section 50-3 (d).

Health Benefits

An employer who pays the living wage rate of $15.88/hr (fifteen dollars and eighty-eight cents) per hour shall provide health benefits as defined in Section 50-2(h) to each of its employees and their dependents. In order to be applicable, the lower living wage rate shall only apply in the case of an employee who actually received health care benefits as defined in Section 50-2(h) and not in the case when said health benefits are just made available to the employee. If the employer is providing employee health benefits less than those specified in the definition in Section 50-2(h), such employer shall be required to pay the living wage rate of $18.75/hr (eighteen dollars and seventy-five cents) per hour unless the employee health benefits are increased to meet such definition.
